Criminal Cases Tried Before Squire R. A. Montgomery, Saturday, Aug. 2.

There were several criminal cases tried before Esquire R. A. Montgomery last Saturday, among them were.

The State against Bert Pruett, on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder in the first degree. Noah Netherton being the prosecutor. The proof introduced by the state showed that Pruett fired several shots at Netherton, two of which took effect, one the hip and the other in the heel. The defendant didn't take the stand and was bound over to the next term of criminal court to await the action of the grand jury. H. Grady Gore, representing the State and D. B. Johnson and P. J. Anderson represented the defendant.

Noah Netherton and Brimer Fann, who were arraigned on a charge of assault and disorderly conduct, were dismissed. There being no prosecutor.

The case of Mack, Clay and Pearly Scott, charging Mack with assault with intent to commit murder in the first degree, on John Brown, and charging Clay and Pearly with aiding and abetting in the commission of the offense, resulted in the defendants being bound over to the next term of criminal court. D. B. Johnson, attorney, represent the state and H. Grady Gore and P. J. Anderson, atty's, represented the defendants.

Mack Scott was bound over in case of tipping, it developing in the trial that he had sold liquor to the Brown boy. All three defendants made bonds.

The case of Mrs. Ollie May Hix, charged with an assault and attempt to commit murder on Mrs. Sarah Greenarch, was dismissed, there being no evidence introduced to bear out charge. The women are sisters and live Locks branch in the 13th civil district. The proof showed that a family quarrel had been in progress, and on or about July 12, a gun was fired by Mrs. Hix to frighten her sister, and not to hit her.

VS

Will Norris.

In this cause it appears by affidavit that the defendant, Will Norris, is justly indebted to the plaintiffs, and is a nonresident of the State of Tennessee, so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him, and an original attachment having been levied on his property and returned to me. It is therefore ordered that publication be made in the Jackson County Sentinel, a news paper published in Gainesboro, Tennessee, for four consecutive weeks commencing the said Will Norris to appear before me at my office in Whiteville, in the 13 district of Jackson county, Tennessee on the 6th day of September, 1919, and make defense to said suit, or it will be proceeded with ex parte.

This August 1st 1919.

FARM AUCTION SALE

ON PREMISES

Six Miles From Nashville

AT JORDONIA, ON HYDES FERRY PIKE

Tuesday, August 12, 10:30 A. M.

This splendid farm contains 153 acres; 80 acres of fine bottom land that can be plowed with a tractor, the balance rolling to hilly, in fine blue grass.

This farm is owned and operated by Mr. J. W. Christian and has been in the Christian family for a number of years. It is well located, being only six miles from the courthouse, on Hydes Ferry pike, and almost adjoining the thriving little town of Jordonia, with good schools, churches, stores, etc., and a splendid community.

Improvements consist of a six-room residence, large new barn, large hay shed, buggy house and all outhouses, well fenced and watered.

Reason for selling: Mr. Christian is old, his health failing and cannot look after the farm, and has given us written instructions to sell for the high dollar, regardless of price. SO, REMEMBER, THAT THE BRIDLE IS OFF, and the farm will sell absolutely without reserve.

This is your opportunity to own a good farm close to good school and church, on fine pike and sight of the city, at your own price. All growing crops, including 35 acres of corn, orchard, garden, etc., goes with the farm and immediate possession given.

All live stock, implements, etc., will be sold as follows: One 1-year-old registered Aberdeen Angus bull, one 2-year-old registered Aberdeen Angus bull, sixteen good grade Aberdeen cattle, weighing about 500 pounds each; three young milch cows, now giving milk and will be fresh this fall; six Aberdeen Angus calves, two subject to registration; two good 5-year old mules, one with mule colt by side; one yearling jenny mule; two well-broke 2-year-old mules; one old work mule; one McCormick binder, in splendid condition; one brand-new Woods mower; one disc harrow; one good Mitchell two-horse wagon; one express wagon; harness; double shovels; furniture, etc.

TERMS ON FARM—One-fourth cash, balance in 1, 2, 3 and years. For further information, see J. W. Christian, on farm, or
